1. Introduction

The MABC Awards were introduced in the year (2022) with an aspiration to recognize excellence amongst its membership (corporates and individuals) in their endeavors at creating value for both nations, alongside enhancing the long-standing bilateral relationship between Malaysia and Australia. MABC shall administer these awards again this year (2024).

These awards are aimed at furthering the cause of enhancing relationships amongst corporations in both nations, as well as individuals to drive value creation, partnerships and collaboration. The purpose of this document is to provide members interested in pursuing awards with a comprehensive understanding of definitions, guidelines, process, structure and timelines for the stated awards.

2. Summary Information

- 2.1 Categories: The Awards are for purposes of recognizing “organizations” and “individuals” via separate categories. There is no cross-over within an Award category where both the organization and individuals are assessed.
- 2.2 Independent Judgment: These awards shall be judged by an independent panel of judges identified from the length and breadth of the larger marketplace spanning both nations. Multiple judges shall be judging each application to eliminate personality & familiarity bias.
- 2.3 Criteria: Judgment shall be undertaken in accordance with set-down criteria to be developed by MABC.
- 2.4 No Recourse to Appeals: All judgments shall be final and no questions shall be entertained. There is no Appeals process.
- 2.5 No Access to Feedback: No feedback shall be provided to applicants – either in qualitative or quantitative form.
- 2.6 Eligibility: The Awards are open to all members of MABC. Any committee member of MABC interested in participating shall be automatically denied participation as a judge or auditor.
- 2.7 Number of Submissions: Multiple entries from a single participant for any specific category are expressly prohibited. However, members are welcome to apply for various (and/ or all) categories listed in section 3 below.
- 2.8 Conflicts of Interest: Any COI issues shall be discussed by the Awards Committee and decisions discussed with the larger MABC Council prior to exclusion/ inclusion of any conflicting application.
